THE STAGE MANAGEMENT WORKSHOP

YOUR INSTRUCTORS

Marybeth Abel (Production Stage Manager) has been professionally and successfully employed for 30 years. Highlights of her Broadway career include Wicked, Cyrano De Bergerac, Sweet Charity, La Cage Aux Folles, Sly Fox, Fosse, Five Guys Named Moe. She held the role of Production Supervisor for 12 years of all North American companies, including the original Broadway Company, of Les Miserables. In addition to her theatrical credits she has produced and stage managed several major live concert and benefit events. She holds an adjunct professorship in the Theatre Arts division at Columbia University- Graduate Stage Management Program, where she shares her passion for helping to develop and guide the next generation of working, thinking and judicious Stage Managers.

Christy Ney (Stage Manager) After a childhood filled with music and dance, Christy decided to pursue a career backstage as opposed to onstage. Christy is currently an Assistant Stage Manager on Broadway's Wicked. Other credits include: (Broadway) Marie Christine, Side Man. (National Tour) The Lion King. (Off-Broadway) The World

Over, Falsettos, and Floyd Collins. (Regional) three seasons at Paper Mill Playhouse and productions for the New Jersey State Opera and New Jersey Ballet. Christy gets great joy out of teaching, tutoring and mentoring theatre students. She has been a member of the teaching faculty for the New York Film Academy's Musical Theatre Conservatory and has lectured and taught workshops on technical theatre and Stage Management for Columbia University, Juilliard, Emerson College, Ohio State University, The College of New Jersey and many other theatres and schools in the U.S. In addition to Stage Managing and teaching, she is a mom of two and an Usborne Books Consultant as well!
